

SOVIET RIFLE REGIMENTS 1939 – 1945*PART ONE: 1ST TO 10TH RIFLE DIVISIONS

Version 1.0, 3 March 2003

Craig Crofoot

This is a complete list of every Soviet Rifle Regiment (Regular and Guards) that was active during the Second World War. Considering the huge organizational size of the Soviet Army, this will be updated weekly. The Roman numeral next to the unit designation refers to the formation raised. For example, the Roman numeral “I” refers to the first formation of the Regiment. The “Dates Active” column refers to the time period the units was in the Active Army, not the time the unit was active (there is a difference!). For the European Theater of Operations, these dates are from 22 June 1941 to 9 May 1945 while in the Far Eastern Theater of Operations it is from 9 August 1945 to 3 September 1945. The “Assignment” column refers to the initial assignment of the unit. For the most part, this was for it’s entire existence. For those that were renamed to Guards Rifle Regiments, there was usually a delay from the time the Division was renamed to Guards to the time the subordinate units were re-designated, if at all. Consult the Version Number and date for the most current version.
